LOST BANK BOOKS.

The Way Depositors Are Protected and Made More Careful.

"If we don't have at least five persons every day come in here to give notice of their lost bank book we think it unusual," said a cashier of one of the city banks recently.

"As soon as a book is reported lost a check is made against it in the bank, and the loser is requested to advertise the loss. For from a fortnight to thirty days ensuing no money can be withdrawn on that account, unless the book shall be found. If not found the depositor must apply for a new book. Generally an affidavit must first be made that the loser cannot find the book and that it has not been transferred or assigned.

"All this is scarcely necessary, but it makes a bank absolutely safe in respect to that deposit, and it puts the depositor to enough trouble to make him or her careful thereafter. Everything having been performed as outlined, the depositor may get a new book, which means opening a new account, as accounts are never duplicated.

"In my experience of many years I do not recall a case where finders have presented books in hopes of withdrawing money. It would be almost impossible for a person not the owner of the book to withdraw a cent on the account. At the time of the original deposit the depositor, before getting a book, has to answer certain questions which are framed to fix the depositor's identity and to protect the depositor. The depositor must also leave an autograph on the bank register. Whenever money is withdrawn these questions must be answered and the autograph attached to an order. This is an effectual test. Each book is numbered and bears the depositor's name.

"We have been asked if depositors would not be better protected if banks omitted the name from the book and simply numbered it. We can see no advantage in that. The plan would not defeat the purposes of a thief, for one who would steal a bank book would know the name of the owner, and the withdrawal of deposits is so well guarded that even with the owner's name a finder could not get money from the bank.

"There are probably from 1,200 to 1,500 books lost every year, of which 400 to 500 eventually turn up. That means from one-third to two-fifths of 1 per cent of the whole number of books out disappear, and one-third of that number get back to the owners. Where the rest go is a puzzle not to be solved."—Chicago Tribune.

Ages of Stone and of Bronze.

The transition from the stone age to the bronze age can be read in the disclosures of the lake dwellers of Switzerland. This wonderful people lived through the stone age and for long ages continued on until they lapped over into the bronze age. Some of their settlements disclose only stone implements, while others of a later date show the bronze chisel, the bronze winged hatchet, the bronze knife, the hexagonal hammer, the tanged knife of ornamental design, the socket knife and the bronze sickle. They show also the bronze fishhook, barbed and in exact similitude of our present device. The ornamental hatpin as now used, together with other articles of utility and ornamentation, is plentiful. The stone mold for casting the copper or bronze hatchet is of exceedingly ancient date, but probably the use of sand was far more common, and hence we have fewer traces of that method.

Lord Macaulay on Sunday Rest.

Speaking on "the ten hours bill," Lord Macaulay said: "We are not poorer, but richer, because we have through many ages rested from our labor one day in seven. That day is not lost. While industry is suspended, while the plow lies in the furrow, while the exchange is silent, while no smoke ascends from the factory, a process is going on quite as important to the wealth of nations as any process which is performed on more busy days. Man, the machine of machines—the machine compared with which all the contrivances of the Watts and Arkwrights are worthless—is repairing and winding up, so that he returns to his labors on the Monday with clearer intellect, with livelier spirits, with renewed corporal vigor."

COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.

Saturday, November 12, 1904.

D. E. O'KEEFE.....EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR

A GRAND VICTORY.

California has reason to feel proud of the vote it cast for Roosevelt and Fairbanks. The people have voted to leave well enough alone. Roosevelt is elected by the largest majority ever given a presidential candidate. This overwhelming endorsement of the Republican party insures the maintainance of sound policy for four years. The landslide has carried with it a substantial working majority in the House of Representatives, so that Congress is safely with the administration in both Houses.

San Mateo County can be congratulated upon the vote it gave the Republican candidates. Roosevelt carried the county by a plurality of 1285 votes, the largest plurality ever given the party in the history of the county.

The splendid support given E. A. Hayes for Congress shows the people believe in him and are willing to trust him with their interests.

The big vote received by S. H. Rambo for Senator proves his popularity. Though having a strong candidate against him he carried the county by a plurality of 402 votes.

R. H. Jury carried the county by a pluralty of 1085 votes. This big endorsement shows his popularity and makes him one of the leaders of the party in the county. He made a clean and vigorous canvass and the result of the election shows the people believe in him. Mr. Jury is a young man with ambition and will do all he can to further the interests of San Mateo County at Sacramento.

In the First Township Julius Eikerenkotter was elected by a small majority, but this was owing to a factional fight in the district. A few so-called Republican leaders for some imaginary cause jumped the traces and worked for the Democratic candidate. Mr. Eikerenkotter has made a good Supervisor and his re-election is a matter of congratulation.

The Republicans of the Third Township have cause to rejoice in the election of John MacBain who made a splendid canvass, winning votes wherever he went. Mr. MacBain is a practical, level-headed man who will give the people a good administration and work for the best interests of the district. He is a worthy successor to his defeated opponent, P. H. McEvoy, who for the past twelve years has been an able, honest and conscientious Supervisor, and who has earned a name for himself as a road-builder. He can retire full of honors, having served his constituents well. The permanent improvements he has made on the roads and the permanent bridges he has built in the Third Township will always remain a monument to his official zeal and practical business ability.

The defeat of Antone Joseph in the Fourth Township is to be regretted. It was thought he would pull through but the odds were against him. He had strong support from his party and made a gallant fight. Mr. Debenedetti, his opponent, won by 32 votes.

All in all it was a splendid victory for the Republican party and San Mateo County can justly feel proud.

I told you so.

Jury's majority is a cocker.

Rambo apples are all right.

Hayes is cock of the walk.

MacBain and Eikerenkotter will be members of the next Board of Supervisors.

The Salt River contingent is headed up stream and are making excellent time.

To elect the entire ticket but with one exception wasn't a bad showing.

Consumption

Health demands daily action of the bowels. Aid nature with Ayer's Pills.

Might in attempting to make right frequently bungles the job.

DISASTROUS WRECKS.

Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck and the same causes are making human wrecks of sufferers from Throat and Lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, even the worst cases can be cured, and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all Throat and Lung diseases by P. A. Ryan, druggist. Price 50c, and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Every man favors honest government as long as it doesn't interfere with his interests.

NOT A SICK DAY SINCE.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determinhd to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relelved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have bean cured of Reumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Lidney Troubles and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c, at P. A. Ryan's, druggist, Redwood City.

Men will shake your hand if you have money; if you haven't they will shake you.

A RUNAWAY BICYCLE.

Terminated with an ugly cut on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. It developed a stubborn ulcer unyielding to doctors and remedies for four years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured. It's just as good for Burns, Scalds, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25c, at Ryan's Drug Store.

Most people would prefer to hear of your ill luck than your of good fortune.

DOES'NT RESPECT OLD AGE.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, Jauudice, Fever, Constipation all yield to this perfect Pill, 25c, at P. A. Ryan's Drug Store.

Going to the World's Fair?

The Denver & Rio Grande Railroad announces that special excursion rates will be made for the St. Louis Fair on September 1st, 2d, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 19th, 20th, 29th, and 29th, and October 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 19th, 20th, 26th, 27th.

A splendid opportunity is hereby offered to visit the World's Fair cheaply and comfortably. At no season of the whole year are the beauties and grandeur of the Colorado Rockies so pleasing to the eye, as when decked with the russet and gold of the autumn foliage.

The schedule for the through Pullman sleepers as well as the personally conducted excursion parties is so arranged as to afford daylight views of the magnificent scenery via the Denver & Rio Grande, rightly called the Scenic Line of the World.

Write for our World's Fair pamphlets and handsomely illustrated Books of Travel, to any of the following Rio Grande System ticket offices: No. 11 East Santa Clara Street, San Jose; No. 1017 Second Street, Sacramento; No. 1070 Broadway, Oakland, or

The Missionary tea at the Congregational church Thursday night was well attended. The principal talks of the evening were made by Rev. C. C. Kirtland and F. H. Thorpe. The remarks of both were interesting and showed deep thought on the question of missions. Upon adjournment of the business session refreshments were served.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pipkin that they enjoyed their visit to the Eastern states to the fullest extent. They are at present with Mrs. Pipkin's mother in Kansas City but expect to spend the remainder of the month at Mr. Pipkin's old home in Springfield. According to present arrangements they will not return until January 1, 1905.

The dedication of Roosevelt Park last Monday night was an event which will long be remembered in Redwood City. At 7:30 the local band headed a large procession to the corner of Mound and Heller streets where the park is located and there appropriate exercises were conducted. After several selections by the band Max Spoerl delivered a dedicatory oration. Mr. Spoerl's remarks were convincing and to the point. He spoke with pride of our town and of what a benefit the park would be. After the exercises a topping-off service was held in Hose Company No. 2's house.

Wednesday was a hoodoo day for one of T. P. Maloney's butchers. In the morning his team ran away and was only stopped after it had smashed the pole. A new pole was put in and the wagon again put in use. During the afternoon the same team, while near the depot, took it into their heads to run away again. This time in their wild dash they ran into the team of Mrs. Ashley of Woodside, throwing her out and badly damaging her buggy. As in the morning, the only damage to the butcher wagon was a splintered pole.

The many friends of Chas. Luscher were surprised to learn on Thursday that he had sold his interest in the local bakeries and for the present would retire from business. The new proprietor of the Del Monte and Redwood City bakeries is Geo. P. Baldwin of Oakland. Mr. Baldwin is an experienced baker and promises the people of this vicinity the same good goods delivered by his predecessor. For a number of years he conducted the Bay State bakery, on 11th and Clay street, Oakland. Mr. Luscher has moved into the place owned by Mrs. Reynolds, just north of town. It is more than probable that he will again engage in business here within the next few months.

E. Michelli, who conducts a saloon on the San Bruno road, and who applied for a license a month ago, had his license held up by the Board. District Attorney Bullock explained that the Sheriff's office had received a communication from the Chief of Police of San Francisco protesting against the granting of a license to Michelli for the reason that he was conducting a disorderly house.

Michelli said that up to within a few weeks he had maintained a dancing pavilion at his place which he had closed on account of the San Francisco rough characters who came down on Sunday and caused disturbances. He said that the fault was lack of police protection. Since closing the pavilion his saloon was as orderly as any in the neighborhood.

On motion of Eikerenkotter, seconded by Debenedetti, the application was laid over for investigation for one month.

A lengthy protest signed by the residents of Burlingame was read objecting to granting a license to Charles P. Hawke, who applied for a license a month ago to conduct a saloon near Burlingame. C. N. Kirkbride stated that he represented the property owners in that locality. The town site, he explained, was laid out with the view that no saloons should be established there; that fine residences had been erected and beautiful homes at that place were the admiration of the people of the State. All the property holders objected to the presence of saloons. Mr. Kirkbride called attention to the limitation clause in the liquor ordinance recently passed by the Board. E. F. Fitzpatrick also appeared for the protestants. He suggested that a day be set for the hearing as the matter was a very important one.

J. H. Hatch, who owned the lots upon which Hawke intended to establish his saloon, thought that sufficient time had been allowed the opposition and asked that action be taken on the application at once.

The Chairman made the order that further hearing of the following protest be continued to next Monday:

To the Honorable, the Board of Supervisors of the County of San Mateo:

Your petitioners respectfully represent that they are the owners of lots or land or have interests in lands in the district bounded on the east by the Bay of San Francisco, on the north by Buri Buri Rancho, and the west by lands of the Spring Valley Water Company and on the south by the southerly line of San Mateo Park and the northerly line of the San Mateo Land Company's land, known as "San Mateo Heights";

That almost all the land within said district, sold within the last ten years has been sold and conveyed upon condition that no intoxicating liquor of any kind whatever should be bargained, sold traded or dealt in at or upon the premises sold;

That all land in the Burlingame Rancho, of which the Burlingame Club tract and vicinity are part, has been sold and conveyed and land therein is still being sold and conveyed by the Occidental Land and Improvement Company, the owners of said Burlingame Rancho, upon said condition;

That the Estate of William H. Howard, deceased, the Estate of William Corbitt, deceased, the Burlingame Land Company and owners of San Mateo Park, have sold and conveyed and are still selling and conveying lands within said district upon said condition, to-wit: lands in the town of Burlingame, lands in the Corbitt Ranch and in San Mateo Park;

That Block 11, mentioned in the petition of Chas P. Hawke for a liquor license, is part of said town of Burlingame, and was owned by Anna D. Howard and parts thereof have been sold by her without such condition;

That there is no building on Lot 22, in said Block 11, although said Hawke claims there in a building on said lot;

That your petitioners are opposed to there being any saloon or place for the sale of intoxicating liquors in said district;

That the sale of liquor at any place within said district, and particularly in said Block 11, would hinder the sale of land in such district to such kind of persons as have been accustomed to buy lots or land therein, and would be very offensive to the inhabitants of said district and your petitioners;

That the Burlingame Land Company, Occidental Land and Improvement Company, Estate of William Corbitt and Estate of William H. Howard and the owners of San Mateo Park have gone to great expense, to wit, more than $100,000 and still further expense will be incurred by them or some of them, in laying out avenues and streets, planting trees, laying sewers and water pipe and macadamizing streets and avenues in said district, for the purpose of selling and conveying upon said condition the land in lots for homes, to people who desire to erect improvements and who are opposed to the selling of liquor in their vicinity or neighborhood;

That most of the lots sold within said district have been sold to such people, and they have been glad to purchase lots upon said condition and at good prices for the same.

Wherefore, your petitioners pray that a liquor license be not granted to said Chas. P. Hawke, and that the petition of said Hawke for a liquor license in said Block 11, Burlingame, be denied.

(Signed): Estate of Wm. H. Howard, deceased, by F. W. Howard executor; Burlingame Land Company by James Newlands secretary; Estate of William Corbitt, deceased, by F. S. Moody; Occidental Land and Improvement Company by James M. Allen, vice-president; Geo. A. Newhall, Frank G. Wisker, Andrew Douglas, J. Kruttschnitt per G. L. King; W. A. Brewer, St. Matthew's School; Edward M. Stack, Christine M. Stack, Rose M. Stack, M. A. Gunst, W. B. Tubbs, Samuel Knight; F. J. Carolan per C. Power, C. C. Scott per L. T. Scott, L. T. Scott, M. S. Pope, her atty in fact, Florence P. Frank by G. W. Pope, her atty in fact, Neuchalel Nurseries, Alice S. Coleman by Robt. L. Coleman.

Jose Santos, a resident of Halfmoon Bay, aged 59 years, applied to the Board for aid. Owing to his enfeebled health and having no means of support, he was in need of county aid. Debenedetti explained that the applicant was worthy of support and on his motion, seconded by McCracken, he was allowed aid in the sum of $8 per month from the date of his petition.

Charles McEwen, a resident of South San Francisco aged 48 years, and unable to support himself owing to illness, was on motion of Eikerenkotter, seconded by Debenedetti, allowed aid in the sum of $8 per month from date of his application.

Afternoon Session.

The Board reconvened at 1:30 pursuant to adjournment during the morning session. All the members answered roll-call.

Erickson & Peterson petitioned the Board to use the county road from South San Francisco to MacDonald's for the purpose of operating a steam shovel to complete their contract for the Southern Pacific Company on the bay shore cut-off work. The prayer of the petitioners was granted on motion of Eikerenkotter seconded by McCracken.

Attorney H. W. Brown addressed the Board saying that he and Mr. Ross had agreed to continue the cemetery matter for two weeks. The Board was not inclined at first to grant the request as too many continuances had already been had. After some discussion the request was granted on motion of McCracken seconded by Eikerenkotter.

Attorney Hewlett, on behalf of Phoebe A. Hearst, appeared before the Board and asked for a certificate showing that $200 an acre had been spent on 1500 acres of land in the Hearst Reclamation District. He filed several affidavits showing that the money had been expended.

A. L. Whitney and W. B. Gilbert were sworn and testified that actually $3100 had been spent. Mr. Whitney said that a dredger was on the district for a long period at a cost of $60 a day. A levee two miles long, fifteen feet wide and three feet high had been constructed.

On motion of McEvoy, seconded by Eikerenkotter, a resolution was adopted granting the request.

A communication was read from John Sutton, a member of the Democratic County Committee, protesting against the election officers that had been appointed at Colma. The election being over and no redress could be given, the communication was ordered filed.

On motion of McEvoy, seconded by Eikerenkotter, the City Improvement Company was granted permission to lay sewer pipes across the county road to San Mateo Park, in the Second township, the work to be under the supervision of the supervisor of that township.

The map of a new subdivision of San Bruno Park was accepted on motion of McEvoy seconded by Eikerenkotter, and the streets thereon declared to be public highways.

The chairman made an order deferring all matters pertaining to the new courthouse to November 10th.

The clerk opened bids for two concrete bridges, as follows:

Bridge No. 1, over a small slough on line of what is known as the San Bruno road, at rear of Seven Mile House, in the First township: Clark & Henery, $1720 and 50 cents per foot for filling. The United Construction and Fire Proofing Company, $1619.

On motion of Eikerenkotter, seconded by McEvoy, the contract was awarded to Clark & Henery. The other company failed to comply with the terms of the notice to bidders, in that no mention was made about the extra filling.

Bridge No. 2, to replace culverts on line of Burlingame avenue at Burlingame—Clark & Henery, $1872. The United Construction and Fire Proofing Company, $1899.

On motion of Eikerenkotter, seconded by McCracken, the contract was awarded to Clark & Henery.

On motion of McCracken, seconded by Eikerenkotter, the action of McEvoy in appointing an inspector on the Dry Creek bridge was ratified by the board.

The claim of F. J. Cochran for $3.50 for horseshoeing done at the county farm was laid over.

On motion of Debenedetti, seconded by Eikerenkotter, J. H. Coleman was granted permission to appoint an inspector at $2.50 on the Burlingame bridge.

The following liquor dealers, whose applications had been previously filed were granted licenses:

First township—W. L. Markt, San Bruno road; bondsmen, J. F. Johnston and H. W. Schaberg. Rogers & Hawes, South San Francisco; bondsmen, M. F. Healey and D. O. Daggett. Gillman & Lynch, Tanforan; bondsmen, William Rehberg and W. S. Taylor. C. P. Regli, Baden; bondsmen, Claus Hadler and Henry F. Butts. Joseph Pacheco, South San Francisco; bondsmen, C. D. Hayward and H. W. Schaberg.

Third township—A. J. Carleton, B. F. Burke, and Martin Kuck, Menlo Park; the bondsmen for whom are J. F. Johnston and H. W. Schaberg.

The following claims were allowed:

I was all run down from nervousness and overwork and had to resign my position and take a rest. I found that I was not gaining my strength and health as fast as I could wish, and as your Wine of Cardui was recommended as such a good medicine for the ills of our sex, I bought a bottle and began using it. I was satisfied with the results from the use of the first bottle, and took three more and then found I was restored to good health and strength and able to take up my work with renewed vigor. I consider it a fine tonic and excellent for worn-out, nervous condition, and am pleased to endorse it.

AT BUENA VISTA.

The Only Preparations General Taylor Made For Defeat.

Santa Anna was the greatest military leader the Mexicans have ever known. Santa Anna with 25,000 veterans went to the battle of Buena Vista with the avowed purpose of exterminating the entire army of the United States, and there was no doubt in the mind of Santa Anna that this great feat could be accomplished with comparative ease. General Taylor, with his 5,000 men, prepared for the unequal contest, and not only defended himself successfully, but won a substantial victory from his aggressive antagonists and drove them from the battlefield of Buena Vista.

Some time after the battle was fought and the Mexican war concluded General Taylor was criticised for having made no preparations for the retreat of his army in the event of defeat. General Taylor promptly replied: "I made every preparation necessary for the battle of Buena Vista. I wrote my will, and so did nearly every man in my army. If we had not won that battle, we would have needed no lines of retreat. It was, from our standpoint, victory or annihilation. The only preparation necessary for the contingency of defeat at Buena Vista was that we should write our wills."

AFGHAN FEUDS.

Towers of Refuge From Which the Warfare Is Conducted.

In Afghanistan the people are good haters. The blood feud exists in all Afghan tribes. When a murder occurs the avenger does not limit his reprisal to the murderer, but kills any relative that comes handy. This, in turn, calls for a counter attack, and in time matters become so complicated that whole families are wiped out. When the tribe is called upon to meet a common enemy the heads of the families who have had a quarrel bury two stones side by side in the presence of the mollah as symbolic of the feud being put out of sight during the public danger. When affairs revert to their normal state the stones are solemnly disinterred and the two parties are free to go on shooting at each other again.

Every Afghan villager of moderate means owns a tower of refuge standing at the corner of his courtyard. These towers, made of stone and mud, are perfectly solid for the lower twenty feet or so, the top being surrounded by a loophole wall and covered over to make it habitable. The base is protected by a gallery, and the only means of ascent is by a rope and a hole just large enough for one man to crawl through. Whenever a man has made things too hot for himself he takes refuge in his tower, and by the unwritten law of the country he can never be starved out so long as food and water are brought to him by a woman.

A traveler in Afghanistan tells of seeing one tower of refuge whose occupant had not stirred outside for ten years. His only amusement was taking shots at the occupant of another tower, which were duly returned. In the meantime their wives visited each other and gossiped and were on terms of perfect amity.

Macedonian Peasants.

In a magazine article on Macedonian refugees the author describes them as a peasantry of the lowest type—dull witted and of poor physique, corrupt, degraded and semisavage.

"The gratitude of Macedonian women can occasionally be more alarming than their indignation," says the author. "They embrace me in a hug of dirty rags, and they kiss me on both cheeks. One poor old lady told me, after this ceremony, that she had been mourning the death of her son for eight years to such an extent that during all of that period she had never washed her head! 'No soap,' she cried, 'will ever touch me again. I mourn always!'"

Her Soft Side.

Child (pausing in front of grandmother, who is on a visit, to consider her carefully)—Granny, which side of you is the soft side? Granny—Why, darling? Child—Because mother says if I keep on the soft side of granny, perhaps she'll give me a bicycle.—Punch.

To pity distress is but human; to relieve it is godlike.—Mann.

WEDDINGS IN WALES.

Quaint Customs That Still Exist Among the Peasantry.

Some quaint customs still survive among the peasantry of south Wales—at least in the remote villages. One of the oddest is the "bidding." When a young man and woman are engaged a circular is printed, known as a "bidding letter," and distributed at market and outside the chapels on Sunday so that all may know of the event. The form is always the same and runs as follows:

As we intend to enter the matrimonial state we are encouraged by our friends to make a bidding on the occasion at the young man's father's house (here follow the address and date of the entertainment), when and where the favor of your good and agreeable company is most humbly solicited, and whatever donation you may be pleased to bestow on us will be thankfully received, warmly acknowledged and cheerfully repaid whenever called for on a similar occasion by your obedient servants,

JOHN EVANS.
JANE DAVIS.

All being ready on the day, a party goes to fetch the bride to the bidding. She hides and has to be sought for in all directions, but being at last found is escorted in triumph. Her procession is met by that of the bridegroom, and they all repair to the church, where the wedding ceremony takes place, after which all return to the groom's house to make merry and to count the gifts. These are generally in money and vary from a shilling up to half a sovereign.

Each item is carefully entered in a book by the "bidding clerk," together with the donor's name, so that it may be repaid when he or she marries. As all the money will probably not be called in for many years—some not at all, if the givers remain single—the young couple receive a tolerable start in life. Oddly enough, the bridegroom is expected to provide the kitchen clock and table, the glass cupboard and the kitchen dresser, also the bedstead. Each of the young people is supposed to bring half a dozen chairs, the bride's especial contribution being the bedding, the crockery ware, the parlor table and a chest of drawers. Things are done methodically in that part of the world.—London Tit-Bits.

THOUGHTLESS WIT.

Wit that stings is akin to crime.

To hold up another to ridicule is not witty, but vulgar.

To laugh at another or to cause another to be laughed at is common.

The merry laugh and the joke go round, but somewhere there is an ache.

There is no pest like him, this man whose thoughtless wit starts the laugh.

The man that makes others laugh at some one else's expense is always causing suffering.

To start a laugh is the ambition of some men. The how or the where, the why or the effect is never considered.

Wit is a joy forever so long as it does not base its success upon the misfortunes, the peculiarities, the weaknesses of men.

When a wit has to depend upon others' peculiarities for his subject matter it is time for him to close the "wit shop" and hang out the sign "To Let."—Indianapolis Sun.

Defining His Position.

Years ago there was a member of an eastern legislature named Murphy, a good politician, but hardly a statesman. Indeed his notions of parliamentary order and debate were crude. He was so frequently out of order that the speaker got in the habit of crying as soon as Mr. Murphy rose, "The gentleman is out of order!"

Once, in the midst of an important and exciting debate, he leaped to his feet. The house murmured, and the speaker brushed him aside with the usual remark, "The gentleman is out of order!"

Murphy sat down, but presently he was on his feet again.

"Mr. Prisidint, I rise to a point of order. In justice I must explain that the thing I intinded to say just now when you called me to order had nothing to do with what I did not say."

A Shylock.

Little Elmer—Papa, what is a Shylock? Professor Broadhead—A Shylock, my son, is a man who is called so by the people to whom he lends money because he expects them to pay it back.—Town Topics.

THIN PEOPLE

want to get fat and fat people want to get thin—human nature. If you are fat don't take Scott's Emulsion. It will make you gain flesh. If you are thin Scott's Emulsion is just what you need.

It is one of the greatest flesh producers known. Not temporary gains but healthy, solid flesh that will fill out the body where it is needed.

There's nothing better than Scott's Emulsion for weakness and wasting.

Scott's Emulsion is a food-medicine; not a stimulant; not a mere "extract" or so-called "wine" of cod liver oil. It contains the whole oil perfectly emulsified, which is the only way of preserving its valuable properties.

Trees and Wind.

When one travels through the parts of Belgium bordering on the sea he sees a striking example of the influence on trees of strong and constant winds. The trees are in general bent toward the interior of the country. It was proved some time ago that the trunks of trees hurled in the peat bogs of Holland all lie in a southwest to northeast direction.

Cutting Him Off.

"You?" snorted Miss Sharpe. "Marry you? Why, you're only an apology for a man."

"But," protested Mr. Small, "you will not"—

"No; I will not accept the apology."—Philadelphia Ledger.

One of the many things children cannot understand is why grown people spend so much time looking at books that have no pictures in them.—Atchison Globe.

Their Distress.

"His family felt very much distressed about his going on the stage, did they not?"

"Yes," answered Miss Cayenne, "but not until after they had seen him act."—Washington Star.

The Cause of the Trouble.

"What is the matter with that baby?" growled an irascible husband as the little one persisted in howling and kicking to the extent of his little might.

"The matter is, sir," calmly replied the wife as she strode up and down the room, "the matter is that this baby inherits your temper."

And the husband returned to his paper with a gloomier look than before.

The Proud Papa.

"Baby carriages? Yes, sir," said the dealer. "What sort of one did you want?"

"Well," said Nupop proudly, "you'd better give me a six months' size. He's only six weeks old, but large for his age."—Philadelphia Press.

A Deduction.

"He declares his wife made him all that he is."

"Quite likely And I should judge that she didn't waste more than half an hour on the job."—Harper's Bazar.

When a Man Tells You That a Bad Case of Piles Can Only Be Cured by a cutting operation, he may mean well but he is mistaken. In this era of advanced science it is A SHAME TO CUT ANY CASE OF PILES. Our method—the new way—of curing piles robs the old surgical way—still urged—of all its terrors and brings about results more effective because it is more radical and permanent. It obviates the tortures and distressing after-effects of surgery and is without failure, pain, danger or hindrance to daily pursuits. The treatment can only be applied by a competent physician, occupying but a few minutes' time. We have cured nearly 7000 men and women with this method. Many of these cases were of 20 to 40 years standing, names of whom will be sent for quiet investigation. Also, without surgery cure Fistulas, Fissures, ulceration, etc. For particulars address THOS. T. KISNER, M. D., 81 Columbia Bldg, 916 Market street, San Francisco.
